It's Bailey Rayne's first day on the job, interning at a law office. It's boring as fuck. Bailey spent half the morning masturbating in a ladies room stall, just trying to kill time until lunch. The afternoon is dragging too, so Bailey strips off her stuffy office attire (her "corporate" skirt is so long and uncomfortable!) and spreads herself out on the office floor, spraying the leather chairs and dusty legal journals with girl juice. We've got a rise in our legal briefs, Bailey!

Being an adjunct professor at the community college doesn't pay a lot, but Charles enjoys the fringe benefits—like when horny teens seek counseling. Heather Starlet isn't sure if she should major in political science or medical engineering, so she goes to Charles for advice. Charles sees a stripper pole and trailer park living in Heather's future, so he suggests a biology lesson. "You should study male reproductive fluid up close and hands-on," Charles suggests. Listen to your teacher, Heather. Time for an oral exam...

APOCALYPSE NOW, SEX LATER! HOW TO SURVIVE THE END OF TIMES!

Story by Peter Thompson

APOCALYPSE X Photos Courtesy of DIGITAL PLAYGROUND

ALL WHOSE NAMES WERE NOT FOUND WRITTEN IN THE BOOK OF LIFE WERE THROWN INTO THE LAKE OF FIRE. —REVELATION 20:15

IT FINALLY HAPPENED. ARMAGEDDON, THE END OF TIMES, THE APOCALYPSE, THE LAST OF DAYS. THE COWS HAVE COME HOME—AND QUITE POSSIBLY THE CHICKENS, TOO. OUR STORIED SHINING CITY ON THE HILL HAS BEEN TURNED INTO A LUSTERLESS HEAP OF SMOKING RUBBLE AND STINKING ASH. THE WORLD ITSELF TEETERS ON THE BRINK OF FINAL ANNIHILATION, YET SOMEHOW, AGAINST ALL REASONABLE ODDS, YOU'RE STILL ALIVE. YOU'VE MANAGED TO SURVIVE. AND NOW, BECAUSE OF THIS ARTICLE, YOU'RE NOT ONLY PREPARED FOR ANY CONCEIVABLE SITUATION, BUT YOU'RE READY TO THRIVE.

So THAT was the thing we've all been dreading for millennia. Certainly, the signs were all there: war, famine, plague, judgment, and chaos.

Ever since humanity harnessed the destructive power of the atom, we've been blowing through our dough like crack addicts with an unlimited amount of cash, building bomb after bomb, each one larger and more destructive than the last.

Some folks began prepping for the increasingly likely event that we'd destroy ourselves in the next war by digging bunkers in their backyards or converting their basements into fallout shelters, stocking their small security zones with supplies of food, water, and the necessities of survival. Depending on exactly what calamity transpired, most of those people are probably just as dead as those who didn't prepare.

But now comes the recovery. It's time to rebuild civilization from the ground up. It could be a thousand years, easily another 40 generations or more.

NO MEANS NO

The post-apocalyptic world is a world with a hell of a lot of NO. There's no electrical power, no Internet, no stores to buy food, no tap water to drink, no flushing toilets, nor sanitary plumbing. With no financial institutions left to protect the masses, money is now worth its weight in wallpaper and you're never going to be able to spend the wealth that you'd amassed in your bank account or 401K because the banks and banking no longer exist.

Many one percenters are living in a bubble on the moon while the rest of us are forced to forage for nonradioactive foodstuffs here on earth or "dearth" (as it is now referred). They were smart; they got out early. Surviving and thriving in the post-apocalypse is going to get some getting used to.

Maybe our planet went out in a glorious booming blaze—an amazing flash-bang explosion and mushroom cloud where everything went to shit in half an instant, like a grenade blowing up in a gas factory. Maybe the atmosphere has been left flickering on and off in a permanent state of nuclear afterglow. Or maybe it was a long, slow burn—a winding down in a lifeless death spiral, like the slow-melt misery of a brick and mortar shopping mall dying on the retail vine. Well, it's all over now. In the end it doesn't really matter does it? What really counts is how well you can weather the realities of living in the New Stone Age—how easily you can make the transition from digital to manual, from a world ruled by artificial intelligence, algorithms, and high-tech toys that fit in the palm of your hand to being able to find new uses and talents for those same hands.

At least now you can completely forget all your stupid passwords and log-on protocol. And fuck all of your credit card bills too. So not everything is a complete loss.

Odds are pretty good it wasn't quite as spectacular as advertised, but what can you really compare the "End Of The World" with? Society has officially collapsed and there's no one left to help us and our families survive. We are on our own. And, to make matters worse, most people have zero knowledge of the pillars of post-apocalyptic survival: food, water, fire, shelter, and safety.

Let's be honest, we pretty much saw this thing coming from a mile out and did very little to stop it except to make movies and write depressing books about what it might be like to survive the approaching apocalypse. The entertainment industry raked in huge sums of money from twisted visions and dystopian fantasy set pieces for more than a century: the Mad Max franchise, Steven King's The Stand, Cormac McCarthy's The Road, The Book of Eli. Worldwide suicide seemed to sell better than sex.

Well, read on, because we've got that angle covered too.

THE GOOD NEWS

If you're reading this, you're one of the lucky ones who've somehow managed to survive the worst. You've defied all the odds. Every breath from now on is a profound gift. Our once bright world has suddenly and irrevocably careened off the proverbial cliff, crashing in a glorious mass extinction level event. Virtually overnight our beloved planet has gone from a wet, blue vault of life-affirming marble skies and happy seas to a dusty, desert landscape pockmarked with billions of withered, littered corpses. The peevish silt of our pulverized past has become a wind-scape of salt and ash rinsing against everything like a riptide.

Either way, you're still standing, living and breathing, you lucky fucker! Burn the calendars and let's call it Year Zero. It's time to make the myths on which the new culture will be built.

Give yourself a pat on the back (that is, if you still have arms), put down that weapon, and hoist a cold one in salute to what once was—we had a pretty good run, but the odds were never really in our favor. More than 99.999% of every species to ever grunt, fuck, and shit in our planet's four-and-a-half billion-year history have gone extinct. Try not to think about the long odds against your continued survival or the overwhelming adversity staring you down.

Here's to the grim, gray future!

The end has always sucked.

Prophets of every stripe have been predicting the end of the world since the very beginning of it.

IT NO LONGER MATTERS WHOM YOU VOTED FOR; IF YOU'RE A DEMOCRAT OR A REPUBLICAN, HUMANITY HAS GONE TRIBAL.

The rogue's gallery of suspects capable and willing to bring history crashing down around us are legion and most sound like the names of lame doom metal bands: "influenza bloodbath," "nuclear inferno," "death plague," "solar burnout," "insane dictator's bad haircut" and "asteroid impact", just to name a few.

So how exactly did it happen?

OH, LET US COUNT THE WAYS

NUCLEAR WINTER: Maybe "that crazy fat kid", as Senator John McCain famously called North Korean leader Kim Jong-Un, felt cornered like a rat and not even his BFF and master diplomat Dennis Rodman could stop him from launching a nuclear ICBM at the U.S. mainland. Or, it could've been a simmering border battle between China and India that caused the first strike to be launched.

We knew that's all it would take to end humanity. Eventually there would be retaliation by the U.S., Russia, and China—every nuclear state would get into the act and mutually assured destruction, via nuclear war, would be our final epitaph.

Which means much of the planet's surface is now the ugly green of Trinitite glass. Every major city on earth has been hit. But on the positive side, women and men who, just yesterday, were barely fuckable threes and fours on a scale of 1 to 10 are now sixes, sevens, and maybe even eights! So, not a total loss.

DISEASE: Then again, it could've been some new generation of super-plague, something never seen before. A malignancy for which there is no easy cure and with modern air-travel, effortlessly spreads around the globe in a day. The last big flu epidemic of 1917 killed tens of millions during a particularly destructive World War. It's very possible that a nasty airborne plague is now spreading around the world, and killing billions of human beings.

SPACE ROCK: The end could've come at us from deep space and it's possible we never saw it coming until it was too late. A major gamma ray burst, created when two stars collide, generates about 10 quadrillion times the strength of our own sun and would instantly cook the earth's atmosphere; going outside would be like stepping into a life-sized microwave oven.

An EMP attack from two stars colliding in a galaxy far away or a nuke detonated above a large city could shut our electrical and communications grids down completely, slowly leading us down the slippery slope that begins with looting and ends with all-out war in the streets.

Kimmy Granger bought her polka-dot top and plaid skirt with a specific audience in mind—her postal carrier. She's had a crush on the mailman for two years, and she's been flashing him her perky tits and trimmed beaver for months now, trying to get his attention. When he shows up at her door today, Kimmy is going to pop her perky tits out of her top and offer to blow him. Kimmy might be disappointed to find her mailman called out sick, and his replacement is a 300-pound Asian woman with overactive sweat glands. But it probably won't stop Kimmy from seducing her. Damn, she's horny!

More probably it was a near-earth object slamming into the heart of the planet more than 40,000 miles per hour. The most likely suspect for that is a tumbling monster of pure iron, 600 meters across, a cosmic interloper called Apophis. The to "head towards Idaho" probably won't cut it. Even that homemade bunker in the backyard with its air filters, power generators, and years of storable food aren't guarantees of your future survival. After all, you might go crazy living in a devil is always in the details.

Of course, first you'll need a cache of food, water, and, eventually, a means to obtain more. You'll need to be armed because that's the nature of humanity. In desperate times people are willing to do impact alone would be similar to several million atomic bombs going off at once. The earth would buckle and the mountains would collapse, thrusting the planet into a sunless nuclear winter where nothing would grow for centuries.

NATURE'S REVENGE: Likewise, there's the super caldera that is Yellowstone National Park. If it decides to stay on schedule and erupt at full strength, much of the United States would instantly be pulverized and the rest of the planet would go into immediate extinction mode.

WHAT DO I DO NOW?

Every single day that follows is sure to test your mettle. If you're not made of stone you're going to wish you were. That cheap plastic lifestyle that sustained you, that allowed you to thrive and lease that Hybrid and vacation on Hilton Head—that's all gone. No one is going to be willing to provide you with the survival essentials you need in exchange for your precious design skills, coding ability, or ironic breakfast cereal blog.

It no longer matters whom you voted for; if you're a Democrat or a Republican, humanity has gone tribal.

Every single meal you eat, every breath you take—nothing is guaranteed. How are you going to feed yourself and your family? How are you going to protect the ones you love? A box of canned goods, air rifle, full tank of gas, and a vague plan tight bunker with your immediate family.

Yes, life has suddenly reverted back to what crusty 17th century philosopher Thomas Hobbes so famously described as "solitary, poor, nasty, brutish, and short." Life now is more of a harsh struggle for subsistence than an actual existence.

And as such, humanity will quickly revert to survival of the fittest and become as nasty as a high school cafeteria. It's kill or be killed. People will soon become "opportunivores", finding things along the way and using them to their fullest potential, sort of like everyday life in Alaska or Third World country.

There are new realities that many of us will find unbearable. Once the toilets stop flushing for longer than a couple days, once the electricity doesn't come on after 72 hours, once the final loaf of bread and last bottle of Thunderbird is looted from the stores, the remaining half of the population left will probably commit suicide. There will be a second wave of bodies.

STRIVE TO THRIVE, NOT JUST SURVIVE

So how do you manage to make the best of the new reality and maybe even have a little bit of fun? After all, somebody's got to start repopulating the planet, right? So what may appear to be an enduring challenge to some could potentially be an honest-to-goodness sexual jackpot for the man who is, well, prepared. After all, the desperate things to assure the survival of their genetic imperative.

TO SURVIVE: Everyone knows you're going to need water. The health effects of consuming contaminated H₂O can run the gamut from intense intestinal issues to a quick and feverish death. You're going to need access to lots of clean, filtered water once all that bottled water you've looted from the Mini Mart runs out. A simple filter trick: Fill a sock with sand and gravel and pour the water through it. Not only will the sand eliminate most of the impurities, but it will also go a long way to neutralize the bad taste of the stagnant scum common to pond water. Remember to boil the water for extended periods of time.

TO THRIVE: Water is great and really hits the spot when your throat is parched, but to really quench that deeper thirst, nothing does the trick like a shot or two of hard liquor. Learning to make a simple still can help you begin to build your own legend. It can be built from easily obtained materials and plans, the hardest part to come by may be the copper coil and thermometer required. Moonshining is an ancient art and a vodka like liquor can be made easily from a mash of potatoes, corn, wheat, or rice. Virtually any plant matter with enough sugar content will work. The yeast will find you. Liquor can be used as a currency and social lubricant in the post-apocalyptic world. Being known as the neighborhood End Of Days Brewmaster will also bring you a measure of respect, as well as lure all potential females to your humble abode. In addition, 'shine's got great medicinal uses and there won't be any lousy interlopers from the ATF keeping you honest.

TO SURVIVE: Shelter is an imperative after any disaster. It's a part of your personal safety and the safety of your family. Survival experts say it's best to find a place that's out of the way, yet centrally located, and the goal is to make yourself as inconspicuous as possible by depositing refuse and any expensive household items to your front yard to discourage looters from making your home a target.

TO THRIVE: It's a different type of shelter, but obviously an essential one if you want to live the good life after the storm. We're talking about the shelter provided by having an inexhaustible supply of condoms. That's right. Rubbers will be worth their weight in gold and they very well might save your life. That's because after a huge tragedy in which many lives have ended, people, instinctively need to have sex. But what happens when they can't locate their birth control pills. Fucking accidents suddenly come at a much higher cost after an apocalypse—you don't want to contract any STDs because there's no formal medical care and no place to obtain antibiotics to cure that lingering itch. And you'll definitely want to think hard before giving yourself the added burden of having another, (dependent) mouth to feed. It'll be hard enough to keep your own stomach full. Condoms are a cheap now, expensive later proposition. The man who has a serious supply can easily trade them for guilt-free sex. And, let's face it, there's not a whole hell of a lot else to do, is there?

TO SURVIVE: Gasoline is a fine resource to have and could make you very wealthy in the next incarnation of humanity. It will keep the generators running, electricity flowing, and make life seem almost bearable. Locate ASAP, as your survival depends on it.

TO THRIVE: Lube. It's sure to be one of those items nobody thought about. But these days, many women won't hop a cock without a heaping pre-sex squirt. It's hard to get wet when you're uncomfortable and anything that increases a woman's ability to say "yes" to your turgid penis is worth bringing along to the new world.

TO SURVIVE: Food is a must-have during the first 30 to 90 days, that is, until it turns rancid or runs out. Luckily, most of the "edible" snacks already in supermarkets have a virtually endless shelf life. You could be eating the same flavored potato chips for the next 60 years.

TO THRIVE: You're going to need healthy seeds, soil and a source of light for photosynthesis so that you can eventually grow your own food. After an apocalypse, there is nothing sexier to a woman than a man who grows his own vegetables. Learn to live off the grid now and reap the rewards later.

TO SURVIVE: Men need sex, or at least the belief that there's the potential for sex. Since the shit evidently did hit the fan, prison rules are going to dominate and you better make someone your bitch before he decides to make you his. Dressing up your buddy in women's lingerie and putting a paper sack over his head isn't ideal, but you've got to work with what you've got.

TO THRIVE: You'll be able to answer all your questions about your future sex life if you simply plan ahead and resolve to include a few hot women in your inner circle. Be it living in a hole in the ground for a month until it's safe to come out or putting it upon yourselves to repopulate the earth, make sure to include a variety of pretty women in your prepping plans. You'll thank me every time your concubine blows out the candles and convinces you to "relax."

TO SURVIVE: You'll need a weapon. This one is pretty straightforward. There are currently more guns in the States than legal citizens. It only makes sense that everyone is going to be armed. You can't afford to go forth into the cold new world without an arsenal.

TO THRIVE: Porn magazines. You'll need stacks and stacks of porn mags. Long before the Internet broadcast every flavor of fucking into every crevice and backwater jungle on the planet via broadband connection, guys used to take care of business the old-fashioned way, one hand holding the mag the other the self-service pump. There is no Internet access, no source of power to play videos. The photo-shopped beauties in good old-fashioned stroke books will be invaluable to use and trade.

TO SURVIVE: Bullets—lots and lots of bullets. You've got to protect yourself from everyone who wants what you have (read: hot women!) and they're not going to be making ammunition in large quantities any time soon.

TO THRIVE: Batteries. A hot-to-trot hum junkie needs an endless supply of AA to power her pussy pet, be it a vibrating dildo or pocket joy-buzzer. Chances are she'll be bringing along her favorite vibe in her "bug-out bag", but having an endless supply of batteries or a new way to recharge them is just the kind of ammunition a horny motherfucker like you will need to bring the desperately horny women around to their collective knees.

In this brave new world of the post-apocalypse, the person best prepared is the person best prepared to survive in any contingency. It's very possible that you'll be able to trade a box of Pop Tarts for a woman's virginity. Everyone is compelled by different demons. That rare person who can figure out the tricks to thrive will live the kind of life none of us can even imagine.

After all, it's always better to plan ahead for pleasure than have to resign oneself to a future of enduring pain.

HIGH SOCIETY'S ON THE SET OF...

NEW SENSATIONS PRESENTS

ANAL OBSESSED

ANAL OBSESSED FROM DIRECTOR WILLIAM H. IS THE TYPE OF SMUT FLICK YOU GOTTA JERK IT TO IF YOU'RE INTO ANAL! THE TEASES ARE SEXY AND LONG ENOUGH TO KEEP YOU ENTERTAINED, THE GIRLS ARE KINKY, AND THE ANAL SEX IS SCORCHING! ALL THE GIRLS ARE DOWN FOR ASS-TO-MOUTH ACTION, AND THERE'S LOTS OF SWITCHING FROM ASS-TO-PUSSY. THIS IS A MUST-WATCH MOVIE!

ALL IMAGES COURTESY OF NEW SENSATIONS

HOLLY HENDRIX

There's a hot tease from Holly before the real action begins. She moves indoors to meet with Mr. Pete and they get very freaky together. She gets her pussy fingered and he receives a hot blowjob from her just before she decides to ride him in cowgirl. He enters her asshole in the same position and Holly enjoys riding his cock anally. They keep switching holes and she takes a nice pounding in her pussy and asshole. Holly also goes ass-to-mouth on his cock and receives a big facial to finish! Nice!

BRITTANY SHAE

Brittany gives a sensual tease outdoors, but once she moves indoors, James Deen is all over her sexy body and he licks her pussy and asshole while she's in doggy position! He fucks her mouth for a while, and then she gives him a blowjob with tons of spit, hand-job included. James goes straight for her asshole and buries his dick in her butt in missionary position. The couple also fuck in spoon, reverse cowgirl, and she takes a very nice ass-ramming in doggy position. She goes ass-to-mouth several times and after getting her asshole rammed while spooning, she gets a satisfying facial from James!

ALICE MARCH

Alice gives an enthusiastic tease at the start of her scene before getting it in her ass. Chad fingers her pussy intensely and Alice reciprocates with a very hot blowjob. William makes sure we get a very hot look at her yummy butt while she's on her knees working his penis. Alice rides his cock in cowgirl and reverse cowgirl in her pussy first before she goes for anal sex in reverse cowgirl. They continue with anal for a long while before she gets sprayed with a huge facial! To the moon, Alice!

ARYA FAE

Arya gives us her tease indoors, showing off her bubbly booty and hot legs. She looks tasty while giving Ramon a very intense blowjob. The super-hottie gets her pussy fucked by Ramon in cowgirl and reverse cowgirl then gets herself into a very arousing 69 for a while. She gets her asshole pumped in spoon and mish, in addition to reverse cowgirl and doggy. Arya goes ass-to-mouth and continues getting her asshole and pussy pumped before she takes the big cumshot in her mouth. That's so hot!

A full-page photograph of Holly Hendrix. She is a young woman with long, wavy brown hair, smiling at the camera. She is wearing a long-sleeved, pink, fishnet-style mesh top that is open at the shoulders and has a ruffled hem. Her hands are placed over her chest. She has a small, vertical, multi-tiered belly button ring. The background is plain white.

HIGH SOCIETY'S

BAD GIRL CONFESSIONS

HOLLY HENDRIX

PORN VALLEY, CA—IT'S HARD TO FIND A MORE SEXUALLY ADVENTUROUS, RAUNCHIER, SLUTTIER, FILTHIER PERFORMER THESE DAYS THAN HOLLY HENDRIX. FOR A GIRL WITH JUST OVER A YEAR IN THE BUSINESS, HOLLY HAS HEIGHTENED THE BAR FOR NEW PERFORMERS, ALMOST DARING NEW GIRLS TO ACHIEVE HER MIND-BENDING LEVEL OF hardcore sexuality. FROM DP'S, ANAL, AND VAG, SCENES THAT ARE PART OF HER REGULAR REPERTOIRE, HOLLY HAS MORE THAN EARNED HER AVN "BEST NEW STARLET" AND XRCO "SUPERSLUT" AWARD. THIS IS ONLY THE BEGINNING—THE BEST IS YET TO COME FROM HOLLY.

HIGH SOCIETY: Have you ever used sex to get out of trouble? Did it work?

HOLLY HENDRIX: No, that's never happened. I'm a good girl! [Laughs].

HS: Ever gotten a speeding ticket? How fast were you going?

HH: Yes, twice, but I fought off both tickets HH: and they were both dismissed. The first time I was driving from Griffin to Savannah in Georgia doing 85[mph] in a 70. The second time I was doing 45 [mph] in a 35 in Deerfield Beach, FL.

HS: Ever been arrested?

HH: Yes, for trespassing, loitering, and possession of marijuana. Once again, I have my ways of getting around trouble. I wrote a letter to the judge promising I'd never smoke weed again and how I had just started college and the drug charge would invalidate my scholarship and ruin my life. She dropped the case! I didn't go to jail! [Laughs].

HS: Ever have sex in your parent's house while they were there?

HH: Yes, once or twice.

HS: Have you ever been caught having sex?

HH: Not that I know of. Nowadays I openly fuck in front of people, so it's just normal.

HS: Have you had a one-night stand?

HH: I once fell for this super attractive guy and he was so into me I just needed to fuck him. We fucked in his car and it was dark, but I felt his dick and it turned me off so much, how small it was. We fucked, but I never talked to him again.

HS: Do you have any tattoos? If so, how many?

I GOT A BALL STUCK IN MY ASS AND TRIED SO HARD TO PUSH IT OUT.

HH: I have five. Two on my chest, one on each shoulder, and my newest one on the back of my neck. I do plan on getting more.

HS: Ever been caught cheating at school?

HH: No.

HS: Ever been caught cheating on a husband or boyfriend?

HH: No.

HS: When was the last time you got really angry? Was your anger justified?

HH: Honestly, I cannot remember the last time I was seriously angry about anything. I'm pretty content with my life at the moment.

HS: What's the naughtiest thing you've ever done sexually?

HH: Um, I'd say letting two guys shove their cocks in my ass and pussy at the same time. But I've probably done dirtier things than that.

HS: Ever masturbated in public?

HH: Airplanes, cars, bathrooms... [Laughs].

HS: Ever have sex with someone you couldn't remember having sex with?

HH: All the time! There have been guys I see and I think I'm meeting for the first time, but come to find out I've fucked! [Laughs].

HS: Can you describe a funny situation that happened to you or someone else on a porn set?

HH: One time Adriana Chechik and I were shoving balls in our ass and pushing them out, making nice porn, and then I got a ball stuck in my ass and tried so hard to push it out. I was pushing like I was giving birth to a baby blue ball from my asshole. Ms. Hendrix, congratulations, it's a blue ball baby from the anus! What the fuck! [Laughs].

HS: Do you have a medical marijuana card?

HH: Yes, it was the first thing on my to-do list when I first visited California. I'm diagnosed with Insomnia.

HS: Do you drink alcohol?

HH: Vodka cran-Redbull. Every time. If I'm drinking beer, I'm drinking lager.

HS: Smoke cigarettes?

HH: Marlboro menthol 72's. Just quit the Newports last month.

HS: What's your drug of choice if any?

HH: I only smoke marijuana and I love it.

HS: Ever had an experience where you said, "This is too much. I can never do this again"?

HH: Drinking too much whiskey can do that and mixing drugs with drinks. Sometimes I lose myself.

HS: Anything you'd like to say in closing to our readers?

HH: I have a showcase coming out September 12th for EvilAngel.com thanks to my favorite director, Jonni Darkko. Be on the lookout for this one!

SAMANTHA BENTLEY & MARCO BANDERAS

RAUNCHY ROLE-PLAY

Marco Banderas is a bit of a weirdo. He likes Samantha Bentley to dress up like a reform school girl while he pretends he's a stern headmaster. Marco bends Samantha over his knees and administers "old school discipline" to her firm, tight ass. "Please, Headmaster!" Samantha says. "Let me suck your cock!" Samantha is getting a little tired of playing dress-up, but she still loves the taste and feel of Marco's thick sausage. Go ahead—impale your pussy on Marco's thick dick, Samantha! Maybe you'll learn something!
